It is officially Spring and many have begun the annual ritual of cleaning around the house. Perhaps you need to clean a closet, a set of drawers, an outdoor shed, a store room or a garage. While we often throw out a lot of "junk," how often do we find things that are valuable to us? Things that had been lost like a piece of jewelry, a tool, a picture, a missing shoe, or even money.

In much the same way, when we study and apply the Bible, our lives will not only be cleaned up, but we also will realize those things that are valuable to us. We are reminded of things that have been lost like a neglected family, a reminder of just who we are as children of God, our call to share the gospel with others, and many other important aspects of the Christian life.

In 2 Timothy 3:16-17 we find, "All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, ¹⁷ that the man of God may be competent (complete), equipped for every good work." (ESV)

Won't you renew your dedication to the Word of God? Join your church family as we gather for Bible classes on Sundays at 9:00 AM and Wednesdays at 7:00 PM. Participate in other times of Bible study and discussion such as Ladies Bible class on Wednesdays at 10 AM, Men's Bible Study on Thursdays at Noon, our Youth Group devotionals (for 6th -12th grades), and more. Find a good Bible reading plan, listen to audio Bible devotionals and readings in the car or while you get ready in the mornings. There are many ways to commit to the Word of God and you will be glad for your efforts! Remember the "word of God is living and active." (Hebrews 4:12)

Minimum, Medium and Maximum Christians

It appears that you could divide Christians into three broad classifications.

First, there are the Minimum Christians. According to the dictionary, the minimum is "the least quantity assignable, admissible or possible." This would include those who attend as few services as they think they think is necessary and do the absolute least work they think they are required to do.

Second, there are the Medium Christians. They are comfortable in being "in a middle position." They are not the strongest Christians nor are they the weakest. They are satisfied with being average, not the best but not the worst. Maybe they could be among the "lukewarm" (Revelation 3:16).

Third, there are the Maximum Christians. They would be those who are of the "highest, greatest, or utmost development." They are present for every service, are constantly striving to build up the church and lead others to Christ and are "ready unto every good work" (Titus 3:1).

Which of these three types do you think pleases the Lord? This has nothing to do with your talents. A one-talent person could use that one talent to the maximum. A five-talent person could use those talents to the minimum. The one who pleases the Lord is one who uses his abilities "to the proportion" of his faith (Romans 12:6)

Paul gave this exhortation on giving to the Corinthians, "But as ye abound in everything, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all earnestness, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also" (2 Cor. 8:7). The word "abound" means to "super abound or excel." Let's strive to be Maximum Christians by always abounding in the work of the Lord (1 Corinthians 15:58).

WEBER ROAD HEADLINES

Thank you to our family at Weber for the kind words of condolences, plant and notes regarding the passing of Sylvia's brother. Your thoughts and prayers brought us much comfort and relief. We are blessed to be members of a congregation with so many caring and thoughtful Christian brothers and sisters. God is good.
Larry & Sylvia Sanchez

Good day to you, on this beautiful day the Lord has made.

I want to thank you all for your continued prayers, thoughts and support. It has been a slow healing process, but I am doing better with each day thanks to our Lord Jesus Christ and the prayers of my fellow Christians.

I continue to keep you all in my prayers.

-Anchored in Christ,
Jeff (JB) Bunner (Bear Valley Preaching Student)
