Do You Have A Forgiving Spirit?

We live in a world where "forgiveness" is not often freely granted. From personal relationships to national news stories, most people seem unwilling to forgive even the slightest wrongs. We can let hurtful words and actions against us fester in our minds until we become hateful and vengeful. I wonder how many actual crimes could be avoided if only forgiveness was offered and accepted? Certainly our personal lives would be improved dramatically if we learned to be eager to forgive.

Our Creator knows about the kind damage a spirit of bitterness will do to our lives. We are also told in Scripture that if we are unwilling to forgive, our eternal souls will be in certain jeopardy. At the close of what is called the Lord's Prayer in Matthew 6:12, 14-15, Jesus said, "...and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors...For if you forgive other their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will you Father forgive your trespasses." Notice: If we are unwilling to forgive, God will not forgive us! Jesus was clear and firm about the importance of learning to forgive others.

Are you grateful to God for your forgiveness and for all the blessings that come through Jesus Christ? If so, offer the same forgiveness to those who have done you wrong. There is a direct connection between the forgiveness you extend and the forgiveness God continues to extend to you as His child. The apostle Paul adds to this message in Ephesians 4:32, "Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you."
