Who Do You Imitate?

“Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery.” That is a well known quote which is so often true. Just watch many children who walk, talk and act like their mother or father. Most likely, we all have mannerisms that we naturally got from our parents.

Think about this on a spiritual level as you read from Paul's words in Ephesians 5:1-2, “Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. <sup>2</sup> And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.” (ESV)

Do you imitate God? That seems like a BIG ask or command, but Paul explains one of the ways we can all imitate God. He writes that we must “walk in love!” Paul even uses a great example we must follow and that is Jesus Himself as He “gave himself up for us.”

Keep this passage at the forefront of your mind throughout your week at work, school, on the ball field, at the store or in rush hour traffic to name a few places. “Walk in love!” We are also instructed in the gospel of John to be especially caring or loving towards our brothers and sisters in Christ. Jesus said in John 13:34-35, “A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. <sup>35</sup> By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.” It takes concerted effort to love each other as Christ loves us. Some people may be easier to love than others, but we are to show love and concern towards every child of God because we are bound together by the precious blood of Christ.

As we continue to grow in faith, may we all become more loving towards our church family, fellow Christians and others in our lives. Let the world see Christ in you every day!

3. Jesus has done everything to provide for your happiness in this life and throughout eternity.

B. Seven Questions—
