UNINTENDED CONSEQUENCES

The law of unintended consequences is well known in social sciences. This is simply the fact that for anything we do we might anticipate the results, but there are also results that cannot be anticipated. Why bring this up in a church bulletin? We call our bulletin the "Family Encourager" for a reason, it is intended to help our church family grow in faith and closer to one another. We only grow if we push ourselves, evaluate our lives, and strive every day to follow God's direction. This article is meant to encourage all who read it to be faithful to God no matter what circumstances we face in life.

For the past two years we have been faced with decisions that have had a profound impact on the faith of many. While many of you have continued to grow in faith by regular worship each Lord's Day (in person or streaming), showing Christian service to others, and working to become more Christ-like; some of you may have struggled in your faith terribly. If you have been faithful, may you continue to grow and shine as lights to the world for our Savior! (Matt 5:16; Phil 2:15)

Yet, one of the unintended consequences for some, is that in a effort to save their "physical life" they have lost their "spiritual life." It is possible that by withdrawing from social and spiritual interaction with others, some may have drifted away from God and His body, the church (1 Cor 12; see Heb 2:1-4). If you have drifted away from God and your faith is withering, come back to the Lord and be restored to the joy of your salvation! (Ps 51:12) Now, does this mean you absolutely must be in worship, in person, every Sunday? That is a decision you must make with an honest and open heart before God. Remember though to consider not only your physical health, but your spiritual health as well. No matter what your decision might be, God still expects faithfulness to Him, regular worship, and spiritual growth in your life.

Here are commitments every Christian can be dedicated to throughout the year: Daily Prayer, Study of God's Word; Worship God Every Lord's Day; Walk Every Day in Service to God and Others; and Grow as a Christian in Every Part of Life. James 1:12 "Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love him." (ESV)
