ROAD TO EMMAUS

LUKE 24:13-35

“Hope is a good thing, maybe the best of things, and no good thing ever dies.” Red Shawshank Redemption

It was three days after they saw their Rabbi die a horrific death on the cross. They believed with all their heart that Jesus was to redeem all of Israel. He was to raise the physical nation up and become a mighty nation again. Yet they witnessed Him breathe his last breath and offer up His Spirit. These two men were returning home from Passover filled with sorrow. They lost their hope of redemption.

Loosing hope effects us deeply. We feel sorrowful. We want to give up. The days are darker. These two men as well as the other disciples of Jesus felt this same hopeless feeling after seeing and hearing the tomb being empty. Yet that tomb being empty gives hope for the whole world. Paul writes in Romans 6:1-6, that we are also buried with Him in baptism. This baptism, according to 1 Peter 3:18-22, now cleanses us. If Jesus’ body was found still in the tomb, then our hope in God and forgiveness is lost. If they could have shown the body of Christ, then the plan of Salvation for the world is gone. Our hope is in the power of God to raise His Son from the dead. Our hope is in God’s power to wash sinners clean through baptism. Our hope is in Jesus’ return to bring faithful Christians home to live with God in heaven. The tomb being empty should not be celebrated only one day a year, but it should be celebrated every day we wake up. May we always remember the empty tomb and the hope it gives! ~KP
