Sunday Special Edition

The Heart of a Servant

Kenneth Pinckley

"Lord, make me a servant, Lord, make me like you; You are a servant, make me one, too. Lord, make me a servant, do what You must do To make me a servant; make me like You." (Howard Publishing Co, 1993)

As we sing songs in church, do we reflect on the message or style of song? Do we focus on the enjoyment of singing or finding the right notes and tunes? This song is a beautiful prayer we offer up to God.

Are we becoming like Jesus? Paul writes to the Church in Corinth in 1 Corinthians 11:1 "Imitate me as I imitate Christ." Paul again writes in Ephesians 4: 13, challenging us to measure up to the fullness of Christ. I heard from a great Preacher years ago, that one of Jesus' missions was to give us an example to follow. He showed us how to live faithfully. He showed us how to overcome sin. He showed us how to have a deep loving relationship with God. Yet, Jesus also showed us how to serve. In Matthew 20:28 and Mark 10:45, Jesus states that he came not to be served but to serve others. John 13:1-17, records Jesus washing of the Apostles feet. So the question is are we imitating Jesus in our service towards others? Can we truly sing the song above and mean the words that we sing? Are we asking God to mold us and shape us to be more like Jesus?

Let me begin by asking are you allowing God to work in your life? Have we given over the control? We need to step out of His way and allow Him to work. Secondly, are you willing to get out of the comfortable seat? Being a servant will, at times, be an uncomfortable experience. One beautiful passage about Jesus is found in Philippians 2: 1-11. In this passage Paul describes what Jesus gave up. Jesus gave up the splendor of Heaven. He no longer held onto his diety, but emptied Himself as a bondservant. Jesus as God is more important than anyone of us, but did not consider it something to hold dear. Being a servant for God means we need to lower ourselves and consider others more important.

Will you join me in asking God to make me a better servant?
