Sunday Special Edition

What will the New Year hold for you, for me, for the Church? Over the last several years, many took time to look at the new year with anticipation, making vacation plans, and setting out resolutions. Is it just me or does the transition to 2021 feel weird and awkward? So many times we look forward to the New Year. Its exciting. It's new, and everyone likes something new. Yet after the roller-coaster of the year that was 2020, everyone is a little more cautious entering 2021.

As was mentioned last week, as we enter 2021, let us set our minds, our focus, our attention on "things above where Christ is seated." (Colossians 3:2) The new year may have its fair share of problems and struggles, yet our God still actively sits on His majestic throne. Let us set our focus on Him and cast our worries at his feet. 1 Peter 5:6-7, we read "6 Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time, 7 casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you." Oh, how wonderful a thought to have a God that cares for you. Let us continue to find ways to serve and love Him in 2021! May God continually bless you and keep you. ~ KP
