Vacation Bible School Recap

Unless you were not here, or were cast into the dungeon of our castle, you may have noticed a pretty busy week here at Weber Road with our VBS going on. For the first 4 nights of last week, we hosted youth and their invited guests to learn about various kings of the bible. The theme of "A Royal Adventure" was brought to life through the efforts of so many volunteers. From Michelle, Erin & Tara helping to create our castle set, and Randi & Denise spearheading crafts, as well as

Allie taking charge in the kitchen & Brenda and Darlene sitting at the registration table, to Erin, Tara, Denise & Randi teaching each night (Randy, Bill, Trey helped teach our adult classes), not to mention the hours and hours that our youth actors put into the skits, mere thanks seems to fall short.

Such an undertaking as VBS would never take place without such selfless people.

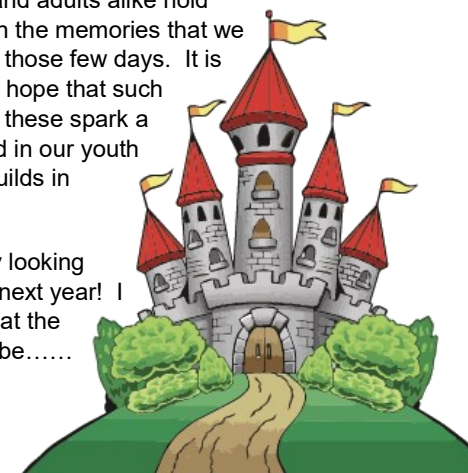

We had nearly 40-50 kids attend over each of the 4 nights. From laughter during games and the engaging interest in class to the joy of creativity during crafts as well as the energy felt during singing time, I pray that the youth and adults alike hold and cherish the memories that we made over those few days. It is always our hope that such events like these spark a love of God in our youth that only builds in time.

I'm already looking forward to next year! I wonder what the theme will be.....
