Sunday Special Edition

Camp Bandina (Polvado-Doubrava)

Today many are headed to Camp Bandina, "The Hill." This week is one of the most talked about weeks of the whole summer. It truly is the biggest highlight. Please pray for this week to glorify God and that lives will be touched and changed.

The Book of James has so many practical applications for our lives as Christians. We are beyond blessed to have this week to dive deep into this wonderful book. We see throughout the book of James three main themes; trials in Christian life, wisdom, and riches and poverty. Even today even a few thousand years remove from the penning of this great letter we can gain much needed insight into our Christian lives.

Suffering as Christians will come upon us. Granted that most of us suffer differently than in the 1st century times, but we will encounter trials and tribulations. The questions that we must ask ourselves is what is our perspective when these trials come to us. Do we turn to ourselves/the world or do we turn to God?

Where do we find our wisdom? Is our wisdom of men or from God? Do we receive with meekness the implanted Word of God? Are the words of God planted on our hearts and minds? We can much wisdom on controlling our anger and listening more to help controlling our speech from the very Words of God.

The final theme deals with riches and poverty. We can see a contrast in this book of James. Some of James's readers had land and money while others were being persecuted or neglected by the rich. Some put a special emphasis on those that were rich by having them sit in special seats in worship. Ultimately, we must understand that our riches are wonderful blessings from our unchanging Father. We must give him all the glory and praise.

Take some times this week to study the book of James with the teens. I know it will enrich your lives as it has mine! -Kenneth Pinckley
