Sunday Special Edition

“And Jesus increased in wisdom and in stature and in favor with God and man.” Luke 2:52 (ESV)

I have seen over the last few years several “ads” on various YouTube videos for Skillshare. Skillshare is an online library of instructional videos that help you learn new things, like video editing or graphic design. What have you learned recently? Are we actively learning? Are we still engaged in new and exciting processes that expand our minds?

At the end of the narrative of Luke 2, where Jesus is found in the temple, there is a small verse that declares Jesus increased or grew in wisdom. Solomon asked for wisdom when God gave him a choice of anything. Jesus increased in wisdom and in favor with both God and man. He continued to grow up and mature. Jesus was born a child. Jesus learned from His parents, aunts, uncles, cousins, and rabbis.

We have the same opportunity. I look at Thomas Wayne and see him learning, slowly at times (like his daddy). We see him processing information. He is growing in wisdom. There is still a lot to teach. Jesus says that we need to become like children. We need to humble ourselves. We need to become eager to learn. We need to become excited when we are able to come into the house of worship. We need to grow in wisdom and favor with both God and man!

I want to challenge you to be active in your spiritual maturity! I want to challenge you to be involved in Bible classes both on Sunday and Wednesday. How can we help you grow in stature and favor with God?
