Sunday Special Edition

The Sermon on the Mount is one of if not the most famous sermon from Jesus. It is one of his longest continuous sermons he preached that we have recorded. There are a bunch of various topics that are very deep, really too deep to discuss in this small article. This Summer Mark Hammitt will lead the adults through a study of this great sermon. Yet today, as the teens attend the spring retreat at Camp Zephyr, I wanted to bring to light a few topics.

These were counter-cultural during the time it was presented, but consider the times today.

Consider the beatitudes for a moment. The term blessed can mean be happy or happiness. Happy are those that mourn or are persecuted. Why? It is because we understand that we can be comforted by God.

Jesus would tell us to love our enemies. Love those who want to do you harm! We want revenge. We want retaliation. We want to belittle those who hurt us or our loved ones.

Jesus said there is only one path to Heaven. Today people believe there could not possibly be only one way to God.

These three chapters are simple to read and understand, but can be difficult to put into practice. May we have this sermon written on our hearts. ~KP
