Sunday Special Edition

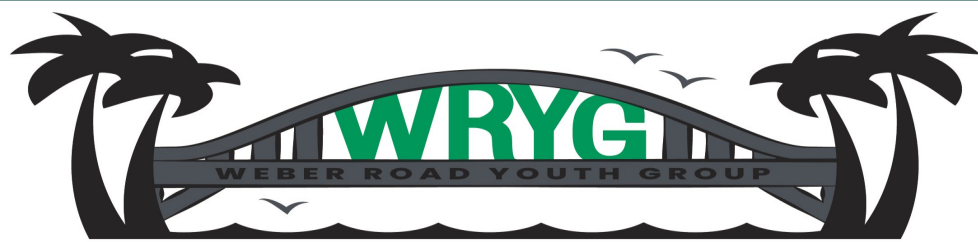

What does Thanksgiving mean to you? Most of us will gather around each other for some great food and fun. Others may gather around and reflect upon things which they are thankful. In 2021, we have several things to give thanks.

After such a limited and restrictive year in 2020, this year has seen its' share of blessings. We have been blessed with more and more opportunities to come together. Some have had the chance to celebrate life, both new arrivals and those who have gone on to see Our Father. Perhaps new job opportunities or friendships have been made and are cause for you to celebrate.

As this time of year comes upon us I am drawn to consider the first Thanksgiving story. A time when people of differing backgrounds and convictions came out, gathered together and celebrated. What better description of the Lord's Church could there be?! We are a people of all various backgrounds being called out to celebrate together on a weekly basis.

Hebrews 10:25 is a constant reminder for us to "not neglect meeting together...but encouraging one another" I pray that we finish this year and go into 2022 full of thanks and with a desire to continue coming together to be His Servant. -Stephen Charlebois
